FAMILY FESTIVALS

The family community at Song Sparrow Playgarden is full of cultural diversity and I would love to learn about any festivals that are important to you and your family.

Do you have a festival that is important to celebrate in your family that you would like to share with our community at Song Sparrow Playgarden? Please let me know as soon as possible and we can add it to the calendar and plan accordingly. The more notice I have, the easier it will be to incorporate it into our school calendar.
